SHORT BIO

Shailla Quadra, Sydney based Australian Actress of Brazilian, Spanish & Italian heritage.

Shailla is a well trained and very experienced Actress.

Shailla has a very mixed heritage, which makes her a very flexible actress, easy to cast in various roles.

Having lived in various parts of the world, she also has the life experience that makes her able to live into all sorts of character's skin, mind, heart and soul.

Shailla speaks fluent Portuguese.

She also speaks a little bit of Spanish and Italian; and has also performed in Spanish in the feature film "Who Pays The Hitman", and in French in the short film "The Kiss".

Shailla was nominated for the Best Lead Actress Award at the NYCIFF - New York City International Film Festival 2011 for her performance in "Brad Pitt Will Be Mine", film which she also wrote, produced, directed and edited.

Shailla has worked alongside some of the most well recognized Australian actors including Luke Arnold (Blacks Sails, Never Tear Us Apart: The Untold Story of INXS) in "Dealing With Destiny", Martin Dingle Wall (Strangerland, Cops LAC) in "The Makeover", Nathin Butler (Winners & Losers, General Hospital) in "A Stranger Knocks Twice", Stephen Peacocke (Home and Away, Hercules) in "Chickonomics" and many more!

She is now finishing up post-production of her first feature film as a Writer-Director-Producer-Actress-Editor, LOVE SOCKS (www.lovesocksmovie.com)

Shailla is extremely passionate about her craft, reliable and committed with her work.

I would like to add that once I'm cast in a project, I'm committed with that project 100%, doesn't matter who died, or what's the weather like, or the distance, or the time. Once I'm in, I give all my heart and soul to that project. I'm disciplined, passionate, committed and I strive for excellence in everything I do.
